

What are you doing this summer?

EF Educational Homestay Program is looking for volunteer host families for students visiting St. Petersburg this summer for 4 short weeks. The students are coming from Spain to improve their English language skills and learn about American Family life firsthand. They are fully insured and bring their own extra spending money. Host families provide a bed for the students (they do not need to have their own room), meals, transportation to and from the local course center, and a warm loving environment. The students will have English classes in the mornings and will enjoy fun activities in the afternoons. The local EF staff will be available to the Host Families 24 hours a day; 7 days a week during the students stay.

- ❖ Host family members can earn exciting travel opportunities
- ❖ High school students can earn Community Service hours based on your school's acceptance
- ❖ Host family teens are invited to join us on daily activities

The students arrive July 9, 2009 and depart on August 4, 2009. Won't you consider joining us for this very exciting month!!! Please call or email Mary Elena at (727) 512-9285 or nutty4jc@gmail.com
