

DOCUMENTING AN ACCIDENT and FILING AN INSURANCE CLAIM

There are one or two forms that must be completed by the troop leader or supervising adult if there is an accident while a registered girl or adult member or insured tagalong is at an approved supervised Girl Scout activity.

1. Girl Scouts of West Central Florida Incident/Accident Information Report form documents the details of any incident or accident, even if outside medical attention was not required. The troop leader or event director completes the form (front and back) and sends it to the Leadership Center immediately after the incident or accident, whether or not it is expected that an insurance claim will later be filed. Do not hold the Incident/Accident Report pending completion of the insurance claim form. Send the form to Girl Scouts of West Central Florida, 4610 Eisenhower Blvd., Tampa, FL 33634, Attn: Anna Langley. You may also email alangley@gswcf.org or fax the form to 813.262.1771.

2. Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. Claim Form provides information required for claim processing with GSUSA's insurance company if outside medical care was required. The insured must have been treated by a legally qualified health care provider within 30 days of the injury to be considered for payment or reimbursement. The insurance claim form is in three sections.

a) Claimant Information. The injured adult or the parent/guardian of the injured child completes page one.

o If you are able, attach itemized billings complete with diagnosis, dates and procedure codes. If expenses have been paid or reimbursed by the family's insurance, the adult/parent also submits a copy of the Explanation of Benefits. The submitting adult then sends the package to the troop leader or event director. We recommend keeping copies of all documents.

b) Girl Scout Leader Statement. The troop leader or event director completes the "Girl Scout Leader Statement" on the top of the second page, except for the "COUNCIL USE ONLY" line.

Ensure that all information to that point is provided, or the claim form may be returned for completion. Verify that the parent/guardian has included the family's insurance company name and policy number, since in most cases Girl Scout insurance coverage is secondary to the family's insurance. Send the form to Girl Scouts of West Central Florida, 4610 Eisenhower Blvd., Tampa, FL 33634, Attn: Anna Langley. You may also email alangley@gswcf.org or fax the form to 813.262.1771.

c) Council Use Only. The Director of Governance and Executive Affairs will certify the claim on behalf of the council, and will enter the Claim Plan, Enrollment Number and Claimant's ID number at the top of the first page.
