Understanding GSWCF Program Credits and Troop Camping Credits

	GSWCF program credit can be used to register for GSWCF programs and events at gswcf.org/events. When purchasing event tickets online, we cannot guarantee the program event spot will be saved when 'program credits' is selected as the payment option. However, you may purchase event tickets with credit/debit card to secure the spot, then email info@gswcf.org with the event name, attendees names and the amount of program credits you are requesting to use. A member of the GSWCF Customer Care Team will refund your original payment method when your program credits are processed. Program credits expire Sept. 30, 2026.
	Troop camping credits are uploaded into the camp reservation system to be used as a troop at one of GSWCF camp properties or Leadership Center. Troop leaders must be properly trained per the Safety Activity Check Points. Troop camping credits expire one year after being awarded. Juliette Girl Scouts (Independent Registered Members) may not earn troop camping credits. Troop camping credits expire Sept. 30, 2026.

Preparing for a Reward Experience

Communication	GSWCF sends an email about the reward experience earned at the conclusion of the Sweets &amp; Treats Fall Product Program (late November/early December). E-mails are sent to the caregiver's email on record with GSWCF as listed in MyGS.
