Why Renew Early?

Early renewal keeps your troop organized, energized, and ready for another unforgettable year. Renewing in April allows you to:

- Give every girl and adult who renews the celebratory Early Bird patch to wear proudly all year long.
- Access exciting incentives for your troop and service unit throughout the Early Bird period.
- Reassure families that their Girl Scout's cookie sales are already working for them — product program proceeds can be used to renew your troop as an immediate reward for their hard work.
- Keep the momentum going by planning ahead with your girls for new adventures, meaningful service, and unforgettable fun.
