$415

Pony Tails ● Ages 7–9

Full Week: June 5–11, June 26–July 2

Join us for a taste of Camp Wildwood's Horse Program! This introductory week is perfectly sized for our younger campers who are new to horses and their care. Interact with our horses in barn and arena lessons.

$610

Sea Horses ● Ages 7–9

Full Week: July 17–23

Want to learn about horses? New to the barn scene? Come join our fine furry friends and get an introduction to the wonderful world of horses. During this session, you'll learn how to groom and ride a horse with the instructor's assistance. When you're not having fun at the barn, you can cool down with your new camp friends extra time at the pool!

$610

Horse Sense ● Ages 7–9

Full Week: July 24–30

This week you will be building your riding skills and earning your Junior Horseback Riding Badge while on an obstacle course. You must work together with your horse to complete a variety of activities and obstacles which will be recorded to share with friends and family.

$610

Beginner

Hoofin' It ● Ages 9–11

Full Week: June 12–18

Want to learn how to ride horses? Then this is the place for you! In this beginner horsemanship program you will learn how to ride a horse independently, learn more about horses, and focus in on learning about the hoof health of your horse.

$610

Horsin' Around ● Ages 9–11

Full Week: June 19–25

Do you like horses? Do you like games? How about horses AND games together? Gymkhana is an equestrian event in which riders are timed individually racing through a pattern or compete in games on horseback. Sound like fun? Saddle up to learn new riding skills while playing mounted games such as egg and spoon, relay races, and obstacle courses. Build strength, confidence and sportsmanship.

$610

Camp Cowgirl ● Ages 9–11

Full Week: July 10–16

Spend this week at camp as a Wild West cowgirl. Learn about horses, branding, and what exactly barn life was like during this time. In the saddle, ride like the cowboys and cowgirls of the Old West. On foot, practice roping a cow. Once you've hung your hat up for the day, it's time for some more fun with an assortment of Homestead activities!

$610

Equine Specialty Camps Pt. 3

Take the Reins ● Ages 9–11

Full Week: July 24–30

English riding: Learn how to groom, saddle, ride, and steer your horse. Learn about the fun competitions and disciplines like jumping over fences and fallen logs. Work toward building your riding skills to play fun arena games. Campers WILL NOT be jumping in this session, just learning about the types of English riding competitions/events

$610

Saddle Switch-Up ● Ages 11–14

Full Week: June 19–25

"Western and English Riding" Interested to find out what saddle might suit you best? Experience a week of riding in which half your time is spent in a Western saddle while the other half is spent in an English one. Discover all the differences and uses of English tack versus Western, and some of the riding disciplines you might do in each saddle.

$610

Bits & Bows ● Ages 11–14

Full Week: July 17–23

Come spend some time in the barn with your favorite horses. Ride in the arena learning skills and safety. Maybe venture out on the trails one day as well! When you're not in the barn, head to the archery range to perfect your shot.
