What is a Flag Ceremony?

A flag ceremony honors the American flag as the symbol of our country and all the hopes, dreams, and people it represents. If your group includes girls from other countries, they can honor their flags, too, and conduct an international flag ceremony.

Flag ceremonies may be used for:

- Opening or closing meetings
- Opening or closing special events
- Beginning or closing a day
- Honoring a special occasion or special person
- Retiring a worn flag

Flag ceremonies may take place in:

- Meeting rooms
- Outdoor settings
- Large auditoriums
- Onstage
- Horseback

The American flag is carried by a color guard for protection during a flag ceremony. All flag ceremonies share one thing—respect for the flag.
Terms Used In a Flag Ceremony

The color bearer (or flag bearer) is the person who carries the flag. There is one color bearer for each flag used in the ceremony.

The color guard is a team that guards the flags. Any even number of guards may be used, but usually four or six girls are sufficient.

The Girl Scout in charge (or caller) is a designated Girl Scout who announces or calls each part of the ceremony.
Flag Ceremony Guidelines

Keep it simple. Emphasis needs to be on respect for the flag rather than on the commands or techniques. Adults can ask girls these questions when planning:

- Who will carry the flag?
- Who will the color guards be?
- Who will give the directions for the ceremony?
- What song will you sing? Who will sound the pitch and start the song?
- Will a poem or quotation be included? Who will say or read it?
- After the Pledge of Allegiance, will the Girl Scout Promise and Law be said?
- What order will the ceremony follow?
- When will the group practice?
- Where will the flags be placed at the end of the ceremony?
Possible Commands for a Flag Ceremony

Opening Ceremony:

"Girl Scouts, attention." Used to announce that the flag ceremony is to begin.

“Girl Scouts, advance.” This can be used if doing an outdoor flag ceremony, have Girl Scouts form a “U” shape around the flag pole leaving the space for the color guard to access the flag pole.

"Color guard, advance." Signals the color guard to advance with the flags, or advance to pick up the flags.

"Color guard, post the colors." Directs the color guard to place the flag in flag standards, or to attach the grommets to a flag pole rope.

"Color guard, honor your flag." Signals the color guard to salute the American flag.

"Please join us in saying the Pledge of Allegiance." (Followed by an appropriate song, quotation, Girl Scout Promise or Law, if so desired.)

Folding the American Flag

Step 1
To properly fold the Flag, begin by holding it waist-high with another person so that its surface is parallel to the ground.

Step 2
Fold the lower half of the stripe section lengthwise over the field of stars, holding the bottom and top edges securely.

Step 3
Fold the flag again lengthwise with the blue field on the outside.

Step 4
Make a triangular fold by bringing the striped corner of the folded edge to meet the open (top) edge of the flag.

Step 5
Turn the outer (end) point inward, parallel to the open edge, to form a second triangle.

Step 6
The triangular folding is continued until the entire length of the flag is folded in this manner.

Step 7
When the flag is completely folded, only a triangular blue field of stars should be visible.
Handling the Flag of the United States of America

Display of the American flag is governed by law to ensure that it will be treated with the respect due the flag of a great nation. This is known as the United States Flag Code. Some of the rules most useful for Girl Scouts are:

- The flag of the United States of America should be at the center and at the highest point of the group when a number of flags of States or localities or pennants of societies are grouped and displayed from staffs.

- When the flags are posted in stands or raised on a pole, the American flag is always kept higher than other flags, so it is placed in its stand after other flags are lowered into their standards, or it is raised up a pole first. When it’s time to retire the colors, the American flag is taken out of its stand first so it remains the highest flag at all times.

- The flag, when carried in a procession with other flags, should be either on the marching right or, if there is a line of other flags, in front of the center of that line.

- When you display the flag on a wall or in a window where people can see it from the street, it should be displayed flat with the blue part at the top and on the flag's own right (which is the observer's left).

- When displayed after dark, the flag should be illuminated.

- The flag is to be hoisted briskly and lowered slowly, with dignity.

- The flag should never be allowed to touch anything beneath it, nor should it ever be carried flat or horizontally—always aloft and free.

- Never use the flag as a cover or place anything on top of it.

- No disrespect of any kind should be shown to the flag of the United States. It should be kept clean.
Retiring a Worn Flag

Retiring a flag is a special ceremony that ends with burning the flag and disposing of the ashes in a respectful manner.
