

Make a Family Portrait!

One great way to celebrate the uniqueness that is your family is to create a family portrait! You can create a family portrait however, you'd like, and with whatever you have readily available. The creative possibilities are truly endless! Follow these simple steps to decide and create a family portrait in whatever style you choose.

Instructions:

1. Decide what art style you want to use for your family portrait.
 - o Art style can be in the form of a cartoon portrait, comic portrait, black and white portrait, or just a simple doodle,

- People often take photos to create family portraits. You can use photography or ANY other medium to capture your family!

You can paint, draw, make a collage, or use a paper mosaic to create your family! You can make your family out of all kinds of materials, from items you find outside like sticks and leaves to craft supplies you can buy, like yarn or pipe cleaners. There is no wrong way to make a portrait!

2. Once you've decided, gather your art supplies!
 - Pick a background (like a piece of construction paper) and collect a variety of art supplies (a handful of markers, a small pile of outside materials, etc.)
3. Now decide who you're going to put in your family portrait!
 - Your family portrait can include the family you live with, other members of your family, or even different types of families you may have (like your Girl Scout Family or your closest friends!). You can also include your pets!
