Meet The Media Girlz 2019-20

Girl Scout Cadette
- My role model is my mom because she does so much for everyone she meets
- My favorite Girl Scout activity is the high ropes course at Camp Wai Lani
- Because of Girl Scouts, I am a better citizen and volunteer

Abby F.

Girl Scout Cadette
- The best thing about Girl Scouts is that I'm able to participate in camps with other girls and making new friends
- To me, leadership means that you are able to encourage others to take a step out of their comfort zone
- My favorite Girl Scout Cookie is the Trefoil

Abby H.

Girl Scout Ambassador
- I'm a leader because I follow my instinct and don't follow the crowd. I choose my own path
- I'm proud to be a Media Girl because I get to share my story and experience from Girl Scouts with others
- My dream job is to be a film director, editor and cinematographer

Alicia B.

Girl Scout Cadette
- The best thing about being a Girl Scout is interacting with and helping my community
- My role model is Rosa Parks because she didn't give up what was hers just because it was a law to do so
- My dream job is to be a mechanical engineer

Amanda C.

Girl Scout Ambassador
- I'm proud to be a Media Girl because I get to show girls that there are lots of opportunities as you get older
- My favorite Girl Scout activity is going to encampment with my troop because we get to help with the younger girls and make memories.
- My favorite Girl Scout Cookie is a tie between Thin Mints and Samoas

Anna W.

Girl Scout Ambassador
- My favorite Girl Scout activity is Camp CEO where I get to meet local business women and discuss ideas for the future
- My role model is Tim Tebow because he is trying to make the world a better place and trying to be a leader by standing up for others
- Because of Girl Scouts I am courageous, confident, and I have a lot of character

Annabelle A.
Girl Scout Senior

- To me, leadership means taking control and helping to make decisions as well as being in charge while considering the needs of others
- I am proud of the work I put into school, softball and my relationships
- Because of Girl Scouts, I am more confident and outgoing

Ashley C.

Girl Scout Senior

- My role model is my dad because he helps me prepare for all activities and helps me feel more comfortable
- Because of Girl Scouts, I am more confident and comfortable in the way that I talk to people
- I am a Leader because I take charge with opportunities provided and I make sure that tasks are finished on time

Ayla Y.

Girl Scout Junior

- The best thing about being a Girl Scout is going to camp and my favorite activity is archery
- I’m a leader because I take charge
- I am proud that I am creative, kind and clumsy

Bailey P.

Girl Scout Junior

- My favorite Girl Scout Cookie is Thin Mints
- I’m a leader because I am confident in who I am and I listen to everyone
- My role model is my mom because she is a hardworking and confident woman who is always smiling and supports me

Bella B.

Girl Scout Ambassador

- My favorite Girl Scout activity is Camp CEO
- I’m proud of how involved I am both in and outside of school as well as how much I’ve grown since freshman year
- I am starting to work on my Girl Scout Gold Award

Bayley E.

Girl Scout Senior

- The best thing about being a Girl Scout is getting to try new things like archery and zip-lining since they’re things I wouldn’t usually be able to try otherwise
- Because of Girl Scouts, I am more confident
- I am proud that I never give up, always try and love to help others

Breana W.
Girl Scout Ambassador
• I am proud to be a Media Girl because not only do I get to learn new things, but I also get to tell others about them
• The best thing about being a Girl Scout are the lifelong friendships that we gain
• Because of Girl Scouts, I am more confident and outgoing

Elena M.

Girl Scout Ambassador
• My mom is my role model because she has overcome so much, stays positive 100% of the time and loves unconditionally
• My favorite Girl Scout activity is going on trips with my troop because they're like my family now since we’ve been together for 11 years
• My favorite Girl Scout Cookie is Samoas because the mix of chocolate and coconut is perfect

Emma H.

Girl Scout Junior
• My favorite Girl Scout Cookie is Thin Mints, they’re just so good
• My favorite Girl Scout activity is going to meetings because we get to talk about our Bronze Award and that activity is just so fun and cool
• My dream job is to be a psychologist

Eva R.

Girl Scout Ambassador
• To me, leadership means that I am able to set an example for the current and upcoming generation of kids
• I’m proud to be a Media Girl because I feel like I have a voice in the Girl Scouts community
• My dream job would be something involving history or communications

Eva S.

Girl Scout Junior
• My favorite Girl Scout activity is horseback riding and archery
• The best thing about being a Girl Scout is helping the community
• I am proud that I work hard, always give my best effort and believe in myself

Evelyn A.

Girl Scout Senior
• I’m proud to be a Media Girl because I get to share my story to impact girls inside and outside of Girl Scouts
• My dream job is to be a pediatric nurse practitioner
• Because of Girl Scouts, I am inspired to do difficult things

Gabriella G.
Girl Scout Cadette
• I’m a leader because I am being a role model to my 8-year-old sister
• I’m proud that I am a Girl Scout, make all A’s in school and am part of NJHS
• My favorite Girl Scout Cookie is Thin Mints – make sure you freeze them

Gabriella S.

Girl Scout Cadette
• The best thing about being a Girl Scout is going to camp with all my friends
• I’m a leader because I try to give others a chance to take charge and help them become leaders too
• Because of Girl Scouts, I am stronger, more courageous, more outgoing and a smarter business woman

Grace S.

Girl Scout Cadette
• My role model is my grandmother because she was diagnosed with cancer when I was very young, but she continues to fight every day and is so strong
• I am proud that I am a great volleyball player, big sister and that I make good grades in school
• My dream job is to be a general in the Air Force

Isabel S.

Girl Scout Senior
• The best thing about being a Girl Scout is meeting other girls
• I’m a leader because I am a Girl Scout
• My favorite Girl Scout activity is camping

Jada T.

Girl Scout Junior
• My favorite Girl Scout activity is archery because it always gives me a sense of pride and accomplishment
• I’m proud to be a Media Girl because getting to interact with different people and being part of the media is a thrilling experience
• My role model is my 4th grade teacher because she taught me so much

Lauren S.

Girl Scout Senior
• My favorite Girl Scout activities are the STEM events. They’re so much fun and push me out of my comfort zone
• I’m a leader because I’m not afraid to put myself out there and step up to take charge
• My dream job is to be a filmmaker; I love directing and editing

Lily P.
Girl Scout Junior

• I’m a leader because I speak up and like taking charge
• My role model is author Rick Riordan because he is very creative and I love his books
• Because of Girl Scouts I am more confident and have better people skills

Lily S.

Girl Scout Senior

• I’m proud to be a Media Girl because I think the ladies in this group have so much potential; plus, we get to do some pretty awesome things
• The best thing about being a Girl Scout is getting to be surrounded by really hardworking and dedicated women
• My favorite Girl Scout Cookie is a tie between Thin Mints and S’mores

Lindsey D.

Girl Scout Junior

• My favorite Girl Scout activity is giving back to the community and helping those in need
• My dream job is to be a pediatrician
• Because of Girl Scouts I am more outgoing

London T.

Girl Scout Cadette

• The best thing about being a Girl Scout is going to camp, meeting other Girl Scouts and selling cookies
• I’m proud to be a Media Girl because I can inspire younger girls and help motivate others to join Girl Scouts
• My dream job is to be a photographer or an interior designer

Mariana G.

Girl Scout Cadette

• Because of Girl Scouts, I am confident, powerful and strong
• My dream job is to own an art museum
• I’m proud to be a Media Girl because we get the opportunity to represent the Girl Scouts

Mia M.

Girl Scout Ambassador

• I’m proud to be a Media Girl because I get to be a role model for younger girls and I get to participate in special activities
• My favorite Girl Scout activity is being out on the water whether it’s swimming, kayaking or paddle boarding
• I am proud that I am getting my AA degree and my high school diploma in 2 years at the same time

Maddie S.
Meet The Media Girlz 2019-20

Girl Scout Cadette
- My role model is Juliette Gordon Low
- I’m proud to be a Media Girl because I am usually shy, but now I can be more brave and outgoing
- My favorite Girl Scout activity is camping at different places

Mikayla S.

Girl Scout Cadette
- To me, leadership means helping others when they need it
- I’m proud to be a Media Girl because I get to influence how people think about Girl Scouts
- My favorite Girl Scout activity is selling cookies and using the funds to take trips

Olivia L.

Girl Scout Cadette
- I am proud that I can play the guitar and sing
- My dream is to be a singer/songwriter, animator or engineer
- Because of Girl Scouts, I am more confident

Olivia S.

Girl Scout Cadette
- My favorite Girl Scout cookie is the Samoas
- I’m a leader because I like to help others in newer situations they may not be familiar with
- My dream job is to be an animator, game developer or even a voice actor

Sydney S.

Girl Scout Senior
- I am a leader because I am a role model to others
- My dream job is to be a CIA agent, brand affiliate or a fashion stylist
- My role model is my mom because she is a good example for me and shows me how to act

Teanna F.